2018

CAMP KNUTSON IS DEDICATED TO NURTURING THE WELL-BEING OF PERSONS WITH IDENTIFIED NEEDS IN A SETTING WHICH CELEBRATES GOD'S LOVE FOR COMMUNITY AND CREATION.

Camp Knutson provides camping services for individuals with disabilities and medical needs. Camp is open year-round, also hosting retreats, conferences, meetings and trainings September through May.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS

Caitlin Malin

2018 marked the 65th anniversary of Harold Knutson's gift of his land for the benefit of children with special needs. We are grateful that through the decades, Camp Knutson has remained true to Harold's vision. This year we welcomed more than 1,100 campers and more than 1,400 retreat participants. Our Camp K family grows stronger every year, as does our appreciation and awe for all that happens here. Our hearts are full – for all the fabulous individuals who make camp happen: campers, staff, supporters and volunteers who truly become an extended camp family.

We held a few new events this year, which were amazing and fun! In May, we had a Family Sundae Funday Open House, welcoming people new to camp as well as familiar friends and camp families. In September, we hosted our first staff alumni reunion. It was so good to see people who hadn't been to back to camp recently – just like welcoming family home. We were delighted to host alumni from every decade starting in the 1950s to today. Also in September, "A Round for the Kids" golf scramble at Whitefish Golf Course proved to be a fitting way to end of another amazing summer of our community's support for our campers.

We began two new building projects: building a program support center to house our program materials and updating our facilities maintenance building. Both will be a great help to us in accessing needed supplies, storing program materials and watercraft, and creating new spaces for the facilities crew to work through the winter months as needed. We are proud of how well-maintained and beautiful Camp Knutson is, and we know these new buildings will help us in our efforts to keep it top-notch in every way.

Thank you for being a part of our camp family. We deeply appreciate your friendship, your time, talent and financial gifts. You make Camp Knutson the best it can be!

With Warm Regards,

Jared Griffin

SIBLINGS BLOSSOM AT CAMP K

Family at Camp K comes in different configurations. We often talk of our “Camp family” but this summer we had staff sharing Camp Knutson with their siblings.

Sam started coming to Camp Knutson a year after his sister, Caitlin Malin, started as a counselor. “Camp was incredible. I knew Sam needed to experience camp with people of his similar ability,” Caitlin said. “It’s been such a blessing to see him blossom.”

Caitlin is now the Program Director for Camp Knutson. This past summer, she was one of four Camp Knutson staff members whose siblings came to camp.

Strengthening Natural Abilities

Josh became a Camp K counselor three years ago after his sister, Jillian attended camp.

“Camp staff come here because they love this place and the people here,” Josh said.

For counselors, Josh said, Camp offers a chance to work with people who share a dedication to campers. For campers, the Camp community provides a supportive environment that helps build their confidence.

Camp offers Griffin, an 18-year-old camper, opportunities to hone his natural leadership skills and sense of responsibility.

Colin, Griffin’s brother and a camp counselor, said Griffin enjoys tackling tasks like setting the tables in the dining hall and using his knowledge as a seasoned camper to help newer friends adjust.

Camp Family

“I don’t know where I would be without Camp Knutson,” said Rachel Kniss, who is now 19. Her mother Angie established the Down Syndrome Foundation camp, a partner with Camp Knutson. Rachel’s 22-year-old brother, Ryan, has been a camper since age 10.

Rachel recently achieved her goal of becoming a counselor.

The community of campers and staff, she said, has helped her strengthen her own confidence.

“No one judges you here,” Rachel said. “I’ve made life-long friends here who will support me throughout my life.”

Gratitude

Having a brother or sister who works as a Camp counselor, Caitlin said, gives campers an opportunity to bond with their siblings in an environment that prioritizes camper needs, nurtures their sense of adventure and celebrates who they are.

THREE GENERATIONS OF COOKS

Sara was just 12 years old when her mother, Pat, joined the Camp Knutson staff as a cook. "I would hang out with the campers, play, go swimming," said Sara. "Once I was old enough, the camp director hired me and I became my mom's assistant."

For a time, Pat was the morning cook, Sara the afternoon cook and they cooked lunch together. Today they are Food Service co-directors. "It's the first job I ever had and it will probably be my last," said Sara.

Pat and Sara both love to cook. "My mom has taught me everything," said Sara. "I put a twist on some of the recipes to make them my own. If I have a question, I just call my mom."

Last year, Sara's daughter, Emma, joined the Camp K cooking team as the afternoon assistant. Her first visit to Camp was when she was just five days old. "I've been coming here as long as I can remember," said Emma. "Being helpful feels good. I hope that by providing good food we can add to the campers' experience."

"The campers and staff have really become like family to me and my family," said Sara. "I just love everything about Camp."

THANK YOU!

Camp is filled with joy and laughter.

The days go by fast, filled with much to do. During the warmer months, campers enjoy the freedom to explore new friendships and deepen existing ones. They try new experiences and find expanded understanding of their own abilities. They strengthen their sense of self and their own independence. We are honored to be part of their journey and grateful for the time we share with each of them. It is why we are here in the first place – and we are so very glad to be here.

In the colder months, joy and laughter might happen around the fire, or inside with friends as retreat goes find rest and companionship together. We are equally grateful for this part of our year as well. This is the season we attend to retreat guests and plan for our upcoming summer season. We work on our facilities, keeping everything in good shape and touching up on any repairs that need to be made.

Your support – of time, talent, financial gifts – is what makes this happen. The joy and laughter that we hear all year long is built on your support of Camp Knutson. For that, and for you, we are truly grateful.

Thank you.

'EVERY STITCH MATTERS': LONGTIME QUILTERS OFFER DECADES OF SUPPORT

Florence Wodarz started quilting shortly before retiring and developed a love for the creative challenge and versatility quilting offers.

"You can make a lot of different patterns by twisting the material around," she said.

For more than two decades, the 96-year-old Outing resident has handcrafted one-of-a-kind quilts she donates to the Camp Knutson Quilt Auction, an annual fundraiser organized by the Paul Bunyan Auxiliary.

LSS and the Auxiliary started the auction in 1987 to build a strong financial foundation for Camp's operations. More than 30 years later, quilters continue to donate an increasingly detailed, beautiful variety of quilts.

"I think this is the finest collection of quilts auctioned off in the state of Minnesota," former Camp Director, Rob Larson said. The auction raised more than $64,000 this past summer from 300 items from quilters like Florence Wodarz and Catherine Hendrickson.

Catherine, who celebrated her 89th birthday in November is from Sturgeon Lake. She has donated an original quilt to the auction each year for 28 years and plans to continue until she is 90. She said she enjoys the opportunity to support Camp with her craft.

"It's improved the lives of every single child who goes to that camp," Catherine said. "Just think of all the things they find out they can do and be."

The Quilt Auction draws hundreds of people to Camp Knutson each year and offers the public an opportunity to visit camp, learn more about our work and become part of a community of campers, families and supporters.

"Every stitch matters," Camp Director Jared Griffin said. "Everything people do in our community makes a strong difference for the overall mission of helping support such wonderful kids."

The 2019 Quilt Auction is August 10.
 We hope you will join us.

ALUMNI CELEBRATE 65 YEARS WITH CONTINUED SERVICE TO CAMPERS

More than 60 former staff members from nine different states gathered in September to reconnect and celebrate our 65th Anniversary at our first alumni reunion.

Camp Knutson staff alumni from across six decades – including eight former and current directors – shared stories, enjoyed bonfires, cooked delicious camp meals and helped with post-season cleanup projects.

For Susann Zeug-Hoese, working at Camp in college helped steer her toward her career working with people who have developmental disabilities. She started as an assistant camp cook in 1989, and continued this role the following summer. She returned to Camp in 1992 as Site Director.

Today, Susann serves on Camp's Advisory Council. With the support of her family, she also has organized and provided food for Camp's annual pancake feed thanking volunteers and staff for more than 20 years.

"Camp's spirit kind of gets into your blood and motivates you to stay involved," Susann said.

Camp offers many opportunities for alumni to continue serving campers, including as an Extended Season Program Assistant, who help fill staffing gaps near the end of the season when many regular counselors return to college.

Other opportunities include assisting at the airport for camper arrival and departure days, working fundraising events, assisting with pre-season and post season clean up and donating items on our wish list.
